No Dishes or Sweeper Given With Bed Order

Only One Day More—Wednesday 24th

It is our intention to get 1000 new names on our books in the next ten days. With these two bargains we are going to put on one of the largest Bed Sales ever attempted in Topeka. We have just unloaded a very large car of Iron and Brass Beds.

During this two days' Bed Sale we will sell Brass Beds for less than wholesale price.

The Schick Manufacturing Company has come to our rescue on mattresses and pillows. They bought 500 bales of cotton last fall very cheap, as the war stopped the European market. There never has been a time when cotton was so low. They bought a very large line of ticking in short lengths at a greatly reduced price, so they have made us these Mattresses very low and we propose to give them to our customers at the same low prices and not cheapen the Mattress.

Some ten Mattresses, full blown, tufted, regularly $8.50. While they last, only $3.95

25 Mattresses, like cut, full 45 lbs., roll edge. This Mattress is sold regularly for $6.75. These two days only $3.95

2 Brass Beds, regular price $13.75, sale price $11.39
1 Brass Bed, regular price $15.00, sale price $11.95
1 3/4 size Brass Bed, regular price $28.50, sale price $16.00

DARKNESS TO LIGHT.

Dr. Cissell Speaks of Rise of Common People to Y. M. C. A.

The real romance of history is the rise of the common people from darkness to light, according to Dr. Clyde C. Cissell, pastor of the First Methodist church of Chanute, Kan., who addressed the meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Current Topic club Monday evening in Gemmill hall. "The common man has come into his rightful place in the world," said Dr. Cissell, "and the European war has brought about his emancipation. "Had the kings in the European war been put in a pen to fight out their differences the struggle would have been over long ago." Dr. Cissell compared the conditions of yesterday and today. "Yesterday," he said, "the prime factor in man's life was his belief. Today it is service. "Cecil Rhodes did not believe in the perfection of belief but in the perfection of service. A man may be perfect in his belief but useless in the service that he gives the world." Dr. Cissell in his talk touched on the value of the human race. "The value of human life has increased much," he said, "The world has come to the place where we must be our brother's keeper." Bank of Topeka Has a savings department—Adv.
